The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday October 6, to Tuesday October 9, 1750.

Naples, Sept. 22.

HIS Catholick Majesty having conferred the Title of Grandee of Spain on the Prince de Montemiletto, his Highness appeared at Court on the 16th Instant in that Quality. On the 18th Instant, the Feast of St. Januarius, Patron of this City, was celebrated here with the usual Ceremonies, when the Blood of that Saint being placed before the Image, it liquified in 25 Minutes, which was pronounced to the People by a general Discharge of the Cannon of our Fortresses. In the Afternoon the King and all the Royal Family went to the Metropolitan Church, to pay their Devotions to the Relicks of that Saint; after which his Majesty and the whole Court set out for Portici. The Pope has permitted the King to raise 150,000 Ducats upon the Ecclesiastical Revenues of this Kingdom, towards defraying the Charges of Quartering the Troops, on Condition that no Troops whatever be quartered in any Place belonging to the Clergy.

Genoa, Sept. 26. The Master of a French Ship arrived here from Cadiz reports, that two Sallee Rovers had made themselves Masters of two French Tartanes, and had chased a Third for some Hours, but that she had the good Fortune to escape by getting to Gibraltar. And by a Felucca which arrived here some Days ago from Corsica, we are informed, that a Ship from Algiers had drove on Shore, on the 10th Instant, on the Coast of Corsica, two Pinks laden with Barley, which they afterwards secured, and got off; but that the People had all found Means to escape, except one Woman, whom they had carried into Slavery.

Petersbourg, Sept. 26. A few Days ago we had Letters from Astracan, dated the 25th past, with an Account, that by Letters which came there from Rhest to several Armenians, dated the 3d of July, there was Advice, that in the Month of May last, there had been a great Plunder made at Ispahan, in which the Natives, as well as the Foreigners, had lost all they had. These Advices add, that there were two Schachs in Persia, the one Ismael, who resides in Ispahan, and the other Sharug, who resides in Mesched, both which had named their respective Governors to go and take Possession of the Province of Gilan. That neither was yet arrived there; but as both had an Army under their Command, it was not doubted but that a Battle would ensue whenever they met.

Milan, Sept. 29. Count Pallavicini, on whom the Empress Queen of Hungary conferred some Time ago the important Post of Governor General of this Country, is arrived here from Genoa, and has taken Possession of his Government.

Stockholm, Oct. 1. On the 24th past two new Men of War, of 58 Guns each, were launched here; the one of which was named the Upland, and the other the Sudermania.

Venice, Oct. 2. Last Night the Senate, after having granted a Dispensation to M. Zon, chose M. Pietro Vignola in his Place, to succeed M. Businello as the Republick's Minister to his Britannick Majesty.

Turin, Oct. 3. Last Monday the King of Sardinia, and the whole Court, left this City, and design residing at the Venerie for some Time. As his Majesty proposes often to take the Diversion of Hunting, it has been made known to the Foreign Ministers, that it will be agreeable to the King if they chuse Sundays to pay their Court to him, unless any particular Business should make it necessary for them to require an Audience of his Majesty.

Warsaw, Oct. 3. The Departure of his Polish Majesty for Dresden is fixed for the 8th Instant, and the heavy Baggage is already sent away.

Vienna, Oct. 3. Count Harrach, late Governor General of the Milanese, has taken Possession of the Office of President of the Court of Justice, which her Imperial Majesty has lately conferred on him; and he has accordingly been installed therein, with the usual Ceremonies, by Field Marshal Count Konigsegg. The Empress Dowager came on the 28th Instant, from Hitzendorff to her Palace in this City for the Winter; and Yesterday her Imperial Majesty, with the young Family, came to pay her a Visit, and returned afterwards to Schonbrun, where 'tis said the Court will reside till the 28th of November next. Most of the Members which composed compoſed the Aſſembly of the States of Lower Auſtria are returned Home, after having agreed to raiſe the Subſidies demanded of them by the Empreſs Queen. 'Tis ſaid a Reſolution has been taken to add ſome new Works to the Fortifications of Mantua, and that Orders have already been given for that Purpoſe. Count d'Engel, heretofore Biſhop of Belgrade, is named to the Biſhoprick of Temeſwar.

Dreſden, Oct. 4. The laſt Letters from Warſaw ſay, that the Deputies elected in the reſpective Dietines to aſſiſt at the Opening of the Tribunal of the Crown, were all arrived at Petrikau, where the ſaid Tribunal will be opened To-morrow with the uſual Ceremonies. The ſame Letters add, that they had great Reaſon to believe that they ſhould be able peaceably to chuſe a Marſhal of that Tribunal, and it was thought the Election would fall on the young Prince Sanguski, who has always ſeemed agreeable to both Parties. An Expreſs is juſt arrived from Warſaw with an Account, that his Majeſty had determined to ſet out from thence for this City on the 8th Inſtant, and propoſed reaching Pforten by the 13th.

Ratiſbon, Oct. 5. Count Kaunitz, Ambaſſador from their Imperial Majeſties to the Court of France, arrived here on Thurſday Night from Vienna; he alighted at the Apartments of the Prince of Tour Taxis, where he received ſoon after a Deputation from the Magiſtracy of this City; and the next Morning his Excellency continued his Journey for Bruſſels, where it was thought he would ſtay a Day or two before he proceeded for Paris. We learn from Munich, that the Landgrave of Heſſe Darmſtadt, and his Spouſe, arrived the 27th of laſt Month at Nymphenbourg, in order to ſpend ſome Weeks with the Elector of Bavaria.

Berlin, Oct. 6. On Saturday laſt the Margrave Charles, with ſeveral of the Nobility and General Officers, who had been to Potzdam to ſee the Regiment of Gendarms perform their new Exerciſe before the King, returned to this City; and the next Day his Majeſty alſo came hither from thence with a numerous Retinue.

Berlin, Oct. 10. Yeſterday was baptized the young Princeſs, of whom the Spouſe of Prince Henry was delivered on the 24th of laſt Month, and was named Louiſa-Henrietta-Guillelmina, the Margrave of Brandebourg Bareith, the Prince of Orange, Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick, and the Hereditary Prince of Anhalt Deſſau, ſtanding Godfathers; and the Margravine of Bareith, the Princeſs Royal of Sweden, the Princeſs Amelia, the Princeſſes of Schwedt, of Mecklenbourg, Schwerin, Heſſe Darmſtadt and Anhalt Bernbourg, ſtanding Godmothers. The King has conferred the Title of Major General on Colonel Dewitz, who commanded a Regiment of Huſſars in Sileſia, and has permitted him to reſign that Regiment, which his Majeſty has given to M. Szeckely, Lieutenant Colonel of the Regiment of Huſſars of Wechmar.

Hambourg, Oct. 10. The late Diſpute which the Magiſtrates of this City had brought themſelves into with the Court of Denmark, concerning the Arreſt and Detention of a Daniſh Jew, after having ſubſiſted many Months, is at laſt ended.

Utrecht, Oct. 14. His Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange having been pleaſed to approve of the Nomination of Magiſtrates and Council of this City, the ſame was finally ſettled on the 12th Inſtant; and they have accordingly been ſworn into their reſpective Offices.

Bruſſels, Oct. 15. 'Tis aſſured that a Project is on Foot for cutting a Canal from Oſtend to the Province of Brabant. The Magiſtrates of this City have made ſtrong Repreſentations to the Government to obtain this Permiſſion, and we doubt not but it will be carried into Execution if no unforeſeen Accident happens to prevent it. The Court has approved of the Plan for making a Road from Courtray to Bruges, and the Grant for it has been delivered to the Undertakers. By Letters from Paris of the 12th of October we are informed, that the King intended ſoon to give the Title of Dukes of that Kingdom to Meſſ. Mirepoix, Puyſieulx, and Count d'Argenſon, and that of Dutcheſs to Madame de Pompadour.

Hague, Oct. 16. The States of Holland ſeparated on Saturday laſt. During their laſt Meeting they have iſſued a Placart to prohibit the Importation of Black Cattle into this Province, till after the 1ſt of April next, on Pain of a Fine of 2000 Florins for each Offence, or of publick Whipping and perpetual Baniſhment for ſuch as ſhall not be able to pay that Fine. Their High Mightineſſes the States-General having appointed M. de Back to be Receiver of the Finances in the Town and Diſtrict of Dort, in the room of the late M. Stoop, he has accordingly taken the Oaths for that Employment. M. Hop, Envoy Extraordinary from this Republick to the Court of Great Britain, ſets out this Day on his Return to London. By Letters from Loo we are informed, that his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange was returned there from Zutphen, whither he had been to aſſiſt at an Aſſembly of the States of Guelderland.

Whitehall, October 9, 1750.

Whereas it has been humbly repreſented to their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, that on Wedneſday the 26th Day of September laſt, about Eleven o'Clock at Night, Mr. Thomas Emes, Veſtry Clerk of St. George's Queen Square, was knocked down before his own Door in Eagle Street, near Red Lyon Square, Holborn, by Perſons unknown, and was not only robbed of his Watch, Money, one Silver Shoebuckle, his Shirt Buttons, a Silver headed Cane, and his Hat, but likewiſe very much wounded on his Head, and bruiſed on his Temples, of which Wounds and Bruiſes he languiſhed ſeven Days and died; Their Excellencies, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the ſaid Robbery, are pleaſed to promiſe his Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Perſon who gave the Blows) who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as they, or any of them, may be apprehended apprehended and convicted thereof. And as a farther Encouragement, their Excellencies are pleased to promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders, by the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury.

Ri. Nev. Aldworth.

Whereas Mr. Thomas Moore, of Illford in the County of Essex, was robbed on Thursday the 13th Day of September last, near Okehampton in the County of Devon, by two Persons on Horseback, the one appearing to be a Seafaring Man, and dressed in a Blue Coat or Jacket, about five Feet and nine Inches high, of a dark Complexion, wore a Wig, and rode on a dark-brown Horse or Mare; the other appearing like a Grazier, wore a Brown Coat, was of a fresh Complexion, wore his own Hair, and appeared to be about the Age of Twenty Years; who took from the said Mr. Moore Five Guineas and two Half Guineas in Gold, and about Sixteen or Eighteen Shillings in Silver, and one Silver Watch, which was bought of Mr. John Overy, London, but the Maker's Name Andrew De Lannay, with a Leather String and Watch Key to it; and after robbing him, endeavoured to shoot him through the Head, by firing a Pistol at him three Times, and at last wounded him in the Face, by the Pistol going of:

This is to give Notice, that if any Person or Persons can find out who the Villains were that committed the said Robbery, and can apprehend them, so that they may be brought to Justice, shall receive One Hundred Pounds Reward upon their Conviction; or if but one of them can be apprehended, shall receive Fifty Pounds upon his Conviction, of Mr. Wynne, Steward to his Grace the Duke of Bedford at Tavistock in Devonshire.
